Air Quality Forecast for the UK

Issued by the Met Office

Today: Conditions remaining similar to recent days across much of England and Wales, except the far west. Elsewhere in the UK turning breezier with outbreaks of rain. This will ensure air pollution levels remain Low on Friday.

Tomorrow: Little change on Saturday leading to air pollution levels remaining Low across the UK, particularly where showers or any more persistent rain occurs.

Outlook: A light southerly breeze, and warm sunny spells, brings the potential for Moderate levels of air pollution to develop across some eastern areas on Sunday. Otherwise air pollution levels remaining Low.
